NEWBUILDING

Trafigura have extended their series of 206,000 DWT Newcastlemax at Qingdao Yangfan to a total of six vessels, having exercised two further options both for delivery in the first quarter of 2017. Hanjin Heavy have contracted a total of three firm 180,000 DWT Capesize. These orders are understood to be from two separate (yet unknown) buyers, with delivery of all three vessels due within 2016. Also in dry, Klaveness have declared two further options for 82,000 DWT Kamsarmax at Jiangsu New Yangzijiang. The latest vessels are planned for delivery in 2016 and takes the total series to eight. Klaveness have additionally declared an option for one 80,500 DWT combination carrier at Zhejiang Ouhua, due to deliver in early 2017. In the smaller sizes, Marine Capital has added a further three 38,500 DWT Handysize at Huatai Heavy taking the series to eight vessels, with the latest delivering in 2016.

In Croatia, Uljanik have announced an order for two firm 49,500 DWT MR tankers from Trogir Maritime, delivering in the second half of 2015 and early 2016. D'Amico have also announced the addition of two further 50,000 DWT MRs at Hyundai Vinashin, due to deliver in the later part of 2016.

Similarly, two orders to report this week in the container market; in the larger sizes Seaspan have ordered a further four firm 10,000 TEU container carriers at Jiangsu New Yangzijiang, which are a set of declared options, with delivery from the first quarter of 2016. Sainty Marine have taken an order for four firm 2,350 TEU feeder vessels from Universal Marine. The vessels are understood to be fully dual fuel capable and due to deliver from the later part of 2015 onwards.
